THE GUIDING LIGHT FROM THE GROTTO
THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT
LUKE 13:1-9

Quite often, death does not affect us until we lose a loved one like a parent, sibling, close family member, or friend. This past week, we buried Joan Schmitt, a matriarch of our parish who lived her life and faith to the full. Everyone has a story about Joan—of her courage, love, and faith in Christ. Yet, she too was called home by God, like so many of our ancestors, and one day so shall we.

Deaths like Joan's shake us to realize that we are not made solely for this world. We are created ultimately for God, with whom one day we hope we will be reunited. St. Paul tells us that this world is like living in a tent that is temporary. "While we are at home in the body, we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith and not by sight" (2 Cor 5:6-7). One day, "we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ" (2 Cor 5:10). We don't know the time or hour of our death, but we need to be prepared. Lent is the time to do it.

During the 3rd Sunday of Lent, the Church asks us, "Are we ready to meet Jesus today?" Have we taken steps to show a changed and repentant heart despite the sins we have committed? If we are not prepared, then we have the time of Lent to begin to change. Happily, we have a patient and merciful God who is willing to work with us and wait for us to convert from our sins.

In Luke's Gospel today, Jesus uses the parable of a barren fig tree to describe how God is waiting for us to change. According to Levitical law, you are required to wait four years before you consume any fruit on a new tree (Leviticus 19:23-25). The parable describes a landowner who waited for three years to find fruit on a fig tree yet found none. He says that since the tree is barren, it should be cut down and replaced by another fruitful tree. Its time is up; judgment must follow.

The gardener, who represents God (Isaiah 5:1-7), however, has a better idea. He suggests that more care and fertilization should take place to allow the tree one more year to produce fruit. If the tree does not bear fruit after the fourth year, then it is to be cut down. The fruit of the tree shows our repentance in life that will allow us to grow in faith.

Jesus connects this parable with the death of the Galileans at the hands of Pilate and the accident at Siloam. Both were tragic events. Jesus tells us that their tragic death had nothing to do with their behavior. There is no connection between how one lives one's life and a tragedy. Jesus tells us in Matthew "your Heavenly Father causes the rain to fall on the just and unjust" (Mt 5:45) Jesus' point was that their time was up no matter what. He asked if they were prepared to meet their God. Those of us who are still alive, however, have time to change and repent, to return to God and produce fruit so we can live.

Today's Gospel message reveals God's mercy and patience with us, giving us time to change and grow. God, who is the giver of the law, is merciful, providing every opportunity for the tree, representing us, to produce fruit and remain in the orchard. Let us take every opportunity this Lent to review our lives, seek forgiveness, and repent of our sins. This will help us to bear lasting fruit and bring us back to God before it is too late.

LENTEN QUESTION

What would the gardener of your soul suggest in helping you produce more fruit in your life? Where are you dead?

THANK YOU, FR. GREG RANNAZZISI—A great thank you goes out to Fr. Greg, our Lenten Mission Retreat Master, for sharing with us his spiritual thoughts and reflections on the mercy and redemption of God. Each of us is a work of art in progress made by our Creator God. Fr. Greg helped us to see how God has an image of us He wants to create. May we take the time in quietude this Lenten Season to be open to His plan, allowing us to be shaped by Him. If you have missed any of Fr. Greg's talks, you may watch them online at our parish website.

May God bless you and your families always.

Words matter. Mankind is really good at rationalizing evil behavior and words matter in the fight for truth. Oftentimes, positive-sounding phrases mask the true intent and outcomes of actions. In the fight for life, we have to shine a light on this false terminology. Perhaps this is why surveys show that ultrasounds are so powerful in changing the minds of abortion-minded women. After all, a picture is worth a thousand words and words matter.

Pray for Priests

God, our Father, please send us holy priests, all for the Sacred and Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, all for the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary, in union with St. Joseph. We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests, and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you." (Jn 2:5) May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of Your love, seeking nothing but Your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

Reflection for Next Sunday Fourth Sunday of Lent March 30, 2025

First Reading: Joshua 5:9a,10-12
Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:17-21
Gospel Reading: Luke 15:1-3,11-32

Jesus teaches about forgiveness in the parable of the Prodigal Son.

Family Connection

“Hey, that's not fair!” How many times have we heard this spoken in our family? Family members challenge one another's generosity, operating from the perspective of limited resources. If we have given to one, perhaps there won't be enough for the other. Jesus wants us to understand that this is not how it is with God's mercy and forgiveness. God offers his love to all of us in abundance. The forgiveness of the father in the parable is an image of God's love for us, generous beyond measure in his love for both of his sons. Can we truly believe that God acts this way towards us and accept his mercy without jealousy, knowing that God's love for another does not diminish his love for us?

As you gather as a family, talk about the words and phrases you speak to one another when angry. Identify words or phrases that reflect jealousy towards one another. Talk about why we sometimes feel jealousy towards one another. Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 15:1-3,11-32. Talk about why the older brother is jealous of the younger brother. Identify words that the family members in the parable might say to one another to begin to heal their broken relationships. Make a family commitment to say these types of words and phrases to one another with greater frequency. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish family of Our Lady of Lourdes, are a faith-filled people who welcome all to join us as we listen to the Word of God and celebrate the Eucharist together. We encourage each other to grow in Christ as we use our God-given gifts to serve the people of our community. Through the Holy Spirit we are inspired through our Patroness, Our Lady of Lourdes, and we strive to imitate her charity and love in making the will of God our own.

Dear Friends:

In announcing the Jubilee Year, Pope Francis asked us to celebrate, “with deep faith, lively hope and active charity.” During this most holy season of Lent, let us be reminded that we are called to discover hope in current times and to be the instruments of hope for others.

One tangible way to accomplish this is by giving to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Through our shared support of our pastoral, educational and charitable ministries, we are assisting those most in need and spreading the message of hope in the Lord.

Your gifts to the Appeal support the education of our seminarians and priests who are dedicating their lives to serving Christ and His Church; assist college students and our young people to grow in their faith and relationship with the Lord; and ensure that vital resources are made available for children and families through Catholic Charities, Respect Life, and our Parish Outreach programs.

During this time of Jubilee in the life of our Church, I ask you to consider contributing to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can enrich the lives of others and that the hope of Christ may abound more fruitfully throughout our diocese.

Thank you for your support and prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Lent is a 40 day season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving that begins on Ash Wednesday and ends at sundown on Holy Thursday. It is a period of preparation to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection at Easter.

The following fasting and abstinence regulations are observed:

FASTING is to be observed on Ash Wednesday (March 5, 2025) and Good Friday (April 18, 2025) by all Catholics over 18 years of age to the beginning of their 60th year. On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together should not equal another full meal, unless dispensed or excused.

ABSTINENCE from meat is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age or older. Ash Wednesday, all of the Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday are days of abstinence.

During Lent, we seek the Lord in prayer by reading Sacred Scripture; we serve by giving alms; and we practice self-control through fasting. We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully. We recall the waters of baptism in which we were also baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ. Lent is a penitential season. It is a time to seek forgiveness, to look inward, and to admit our shortcomings and failures.

All faithful of the Diocese of Rockville Centre are reminded that "The season of Lent is penitential in nature and during Lent penance should be not only internal and individual, but also external and social (Sacrosanctum Concilium, No. 5, 109).
